“ Jeff was my buddy. Anytime he came into the clinic we would talk motorcycles and how he wanted to go ride. He always had a great hug and a beautiful smile. I loved how excited he would get when I brought him a new Harley shirt. He was a joy and I was blessed to know him. Rest peacefully sweet friend.

“ We will always cherish the times we spent with Jeff, Several Christmas and Easter’s were shared with Jeff and Letty Jo at our house, he always had that big smile and hug for us, the most beautiful memory I will forever hold dear is seeing his face as he would receive gifts from his Uncle Lex and Aunt Janie. His laughter drew everyone’s attention, always a delight and a sweetheart. RIP sweet Jeff

“ Jeff always had a smile that lit up a room. He and Letty Jo always brought the best crackers she made to the steel guitar show. I forgot how she made them but we nicknamed them to crack crackers because they were so addictive. Jeff gave the biggest hugs. RIP Jeff
