“ John Roy,
Knowing your Mom and Dad and working with them was one of the greatest pleasures I have known. They were exceptional people who loved each other very much and their family. They were two of the best most unselfish people I have ever known, always ready to help and always happy. I have been fortunate to continue sharing Jo's path of life since Frank's passing and the ups and downs, the disappointments as well as the joys. I have admired her for the way she handled the things life has challenged her with and how she remained optimistic all the way. She was a true friend to many and loved by all who knew her. Both you and all of us have lost a very special person. So sorry I was unable to attend the services.

“ Norma, I know how very much Jo meant to you and how very glad she was to have you. She told me many times that you did things for her above and beyond what anyone else would have done and that you were the most unselfish person she knew. We all appreciate how much you have done and how you have stood by her during this most difficult of times. You are a very special person and I certainly admire you and know that I am not the only one.

“ Miss Jo was a wonderful person. If she cared about you she was there for you. I loved taking her to the Christmas party. She will be missed & always remembered. She just took her night visitor up on his offer
