

JoAnn McDougal

February 7, 1936 - April 15, 2016

JoAnn McDougal, 80, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died April 15, 2016, at her home. Born February 7, 1936, in Japton, Arkansas, she was the daughter of Arnold Rogers and Mary (Lewis) Rogers. JoAnn and Junior McDougal were married May 31, 1951. She was a professional piano player and played for many groups in the area including the Samaritan's Quartet. JoAnn loved her early life playing with different bands and playing country clubs and dinner music. She loved her home and her family. JoAnn loved the spring and especially her beautiful yard. But her passion was jewelry, she loved ordering from the shopping channels and receiving packages in the mail. JoAnn was a member of First Baptist Church, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one son Roger and sister Brooksie Fitzgerald.

Survivors include her husband Junior of the home; brother Michael Rogers of Houston, Texas; son Dr. Richard McDougal and wife Linda of Clarksville, Arkansas; daughter Renee Burns and husband Barry of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; grandchildren Emma White and husband Brad, Whitney Lipsmeyer and wife Christina, Albert McDougal and wife Belinda, Coleson Burns and wife Jennifer, Abbi Armstrong and husband Rob, Austin McDougal, Andrew McDougal, Paige McDougal, Cara McDougal, Jesse Lipsmeyer and Liza Holt; great grandchildren Emory White, Brooks White, Hudson White, Elleigh White, Lucy McDougal, Oliver McDougal, Hannah Booth, Brayden Lipsmeyer, Collin Taheri, Amani Williams, Kenyon Holt, Cheryl Goodson, Zachary Nall and “ Mr. McDougal, Renee, Richard (A.P.), I really don't know where to begin to express my deepest sympathies at the passing of a woman who was such an important part of my growing up. I spent countless days and nights at your house, and JoAnn was always the "fun mom" to be with - an abundant sense of humor and great musician. Later on when she was playing with Dr. Puckett and others in a group, Richard and I gave her the name (which she gladly accepted) of being the Mother Maybelle of the Ozark Ramblers. I also recall her playing dinner music on the organ at the Fireside Inn in Springdale (and filling in for her at least once)...I could do on and on but please know that all those memories and more will be with me forever. Much love to all of you and know that you will remain in my thoughts and prayers. Allen
