

John Hammons

April 8, 1916 - January 6, 2008

John Wesley Hammons, 91 year-old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died January 6, 2008 Siloam Springs Memorial Hospital, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Born April 8, 1916, in Metalton, Arkansas, he was the son of William Vern Hammons and Eva Hudspeth Hammons. John was a self employed mechanic and dump truck driver. He was of the Baptist faith. He was preceded in death by his wife Virginia Burgess Hammons in 2007. Survivors include three sons: David Hammons and wife Kay of Berryville, Arkansas, Dewey Hammons and wife Jean of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Stephen Hammons of Berryville, Arkansas; one daughter: Carolyn Larkin and husband Clyde of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; nine grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren; two brothers, Herbert Hammons of California and Jessie Hammons of Tulsa, Oklahoma; and one sister, Dorothy Newby, of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Graveside services will be 11:00 a.m., Thursday, January 10, 2008, at Oak Hill Cemetery, with Jim Whisenant officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ John Hammons

September 19, 2012 at 11:29 AM