“ Dear John's Family,
I was very shocked to hear about john's death he was a really nice guy. He will be missed alot at the nursing home. I was a cna there and when they told me that he died i was like what happened i was just in there with him a few day's earlier and he was not that bad. May God bless you and keep you in your time of need.He never puts anything upon us that he cannot handle.
Sincerly,
Johnda Hendren
