“ This man was like a father to me. In fact, he was even better. In all the pain and agony he endured, he still loved. He had the biggest heart out of everyone I've know. He was a tall and shining beacon of strength for me. Johnny saved me from a path he knew all to well and there's nothing I could ever do to repay him. This world was cruel to the kindest soul bit he kept fighting. This crushing pain my heart feels, tells me that apart of myself will always be with Johnny. He gave me something someone needed to give him, a second chance. I was in a world that was never nice and then in the darkest place and at the darkest point of my life, I met Johnny. I learned his story. I learned everything about him. I grew to admire and love Johnny. We were so much alike, he'd often tell me it was like looking in a mirror. I can't do anything for him now, but I will live everyday for Johnny. I will never forget his voice and his memories will stay with me forever. I love you Johnny.
