“ My memories of Jon goes way back, I lived with Milton and Janet while I was going to school in Portland Oregon. Jon was 3 years old and always so happy and laughing. He had these traits as he became an adult. We always looked forward to see him when we could. We are going to miss him, but will be together again some day.

“ It says to "share a memory" so that's what I want to do... Jon was my dear friend, a friend I loved unconditionally as God loves us. I wasn't just there for him, we were there for each other. Though others did not understand us we "got" one another. I will miss you terribly my dear friend, I'll miss the laughter you brought to my life but I will see you again. God bless you Karrie, Melissa & Wesley; you were his world.

“Karrie and family know that others grieve with you at this time. Jon was was a quiet, non-assuming guy. My last conversation with him was at church recently. We would always stop and chat when we ran into each other. Cling to those "precious memories!" May God grant you the peace that passeth all understanding, Phillipians 4:7. Thoughts and prayers are with you.

Jon and Kerrie shared their pew the very first time I entered Liberty baptist church. They treated me like they had known Me for years, my wife and I moved to Siloam springs, ark on The 22 nd of sept 2015. What a very good impression they Made to this church shopper being new in town. Kerrie our hearts go out for you and family. Best wishes from, Wayne and Nora mills

Karrie, Melissa, Wesley, family and friends our deepest sympathy and condolences. You have all been in our lives as friends and extended family for a so long and we love our friendship and know it will continue to grow. Our memories of Jon are so dear to us. We watched as he grew and matured as a husband and father. He was a gift from God and touched so many lives. We count ourselves as blessed to have known him. God's light and love shined through him. His legacy will continue to live on in all of our lives that he touched. To all be His glory!
