“ I worked for Aunt Joyce and Uncle Bobby when they owned the Dairy Queen. She let me babysit her boys, Crissa said she was “too old” for a babysitter. I visited with Joyce some in later years. I loved her smile. Joyce you will be missed and I hope you know how much I loved you !

“ I have so many great memories of my Aunt Joyce- her house was always so much fun and she was always so warm and happy! She and Bobby had a Dairy Queen for years and we could always have anything we wanted when we visited. She was such a great sister to my dad, Lyndell Foster, and we'll all miss her so much. Godspeed Aunt Joyce, we love you and we'll see you again!
