

Joyce Pike

June 11, 1935 - June 28, 2019

Joyce Pike was born June 11, 1935 in Weddington, Arkansas, to Zeb Carl Johnson and Lillian Elizabeth (Summers) Johnson. Joyce grew up in Weddington, AR on a dairy farm with three sisters. Most of her time was spent enjoying being a tomboy, and working outside with her dad instead of doing housework. She was a lifetime resident of Siloam Springs and a 1952 graduate of the Siloam Springs High School. Joyce was a longtime bank teller at First National Bank in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Raising two sons, as you can imagine, kept her very busy trying to keep them out of mischief.

After the boys were raised, Joyce married JD Pike on February 19, 1988 in Siloam Springs. Before her declining health, she was a very active member of the Kenwood Baptist Church.

After retiring, Joyce enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. She felt very fortunate that she was able to take care of them on a daily basis whenever she needed. You could always find Joyce at any of her grandchildren's activities. It was very apparent when you drove by their house that Joyce enjoyed spending most of her time outside gardening, mowing, and living on the farm. She had various hobbies that she enjoyed when the weather prevented her from being outside, including painting, sewing, cooking, and playing the piano. Every fall, the grandkids could enjoy finding a painted pumpkin on their porch from her. Joyce has even been known to ride a motorcycle or two.

Survivors include: husband, JD Pike of Siloam Springs; two sons, Robert Spry of Twin Oaks, Oklahoma, and Kenneth Spry of Siloam Springs; four grandchildren, Sarah Cooley and family of West Siloam Springs, Oklahoma, Kindle Spry of Twin Oaks, Candice Spry and family of Siloam Springs, and Crissa Spry of Siloam Springs; and one that she gained along the way, Keli Sumter and family of Siloam Springs; several great grandchildren; three sisters, a twin Loyce, Helen, and Donna; as well as numerous other relatives and friends. Anyone that ever met Joyce would agree that she was loved by all. She left her family and friends with many precious moments that will never be forgotten.

Funeral services will be 3:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 2, 2019 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs. Burial will follow at Weddington Cemetery, Weddington, Arkansas. Visitation will be from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 2, 2019 at Wasson Funeral Home.

“Joyce was a wonderful friend and neighbor. We will truly miss her. She loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally. We had such a great time at East Kenwood Baptist Church. She and I had so much fun cooking for Vacation Bible School. The kids would always be so excited to come in and see what we had made for them. We miss the fall hayrides and potluck dinners down on River Valley Road. You could always count on Joyce and J.D. we couldn't ask for better neighbors. Heaven has a new angel. Rest in peace sweet Joyce.

“ I'll never forget one of the most beloved ladies I've ever met in life, JOYCE. I loved her with every piece of me. When I was in her life I was married to her nephew, David morrison. We would travel from Springdale to Siloam springs quite often along with David's mother, Donna. Going to Joyce's home was one of my favorite places to go. Joyce made my visit very memorable for sure. Her paintings were spectacular as I had a few hanging on my wall in my home. Joyce carried a smile like none other. It seemed as though the closer I'd come to hug her the wider her smile became. A blessing is what she was to those who knew her. I must share with everyone, if ever u knew JOYCE u sure had a friend in her. The sweet precious spirit she carried was like none other I've ever known. There will never be another lady so beautiful in my eyes and heart. Joyce was for sure one of a kind, A blessing to the world, and a lady of pure pleasure. I will miss u AUNT JOYCE more than words could ever express. OUR BIG GOD CALLED U HOME BECAUSE HE NEEDED ANOTHER ANGEL TO HELP POUR OUT THE RAIN. I love u MY FRIEND FOR LIFE. UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN, enjoy the beautiful HEAVEN. Missing u is all I'll be doing down here. GO SHINE HIGH UPON THAT BEAUTIFUL MOUNTIAN, BEAUTIFUL LADY, AND LIVE THE BEAUTY U DESERVE. I love u BOB and KENNY. Take care of yourselves and always know how much I care. GOD BLESS U ALL THROUGH THIS SAD TIME. I truly did love our JOYCE, your precious mother. ALWAYS and warmly, CHERYL MORRISON

“ Kenny, We are so sorry for your loss. I'll never forget your mom calling me about you going to Colorado with us on motorcycles. She wasn't so sure you should go but I reassured her we would take care of you, and we brought you back home safe. That was a great trip. Joyce was a lovely woman and always had a smile. She will be missed. You and your family will continue to be in our prayers.

“ Joyce has been part of my world for almost as long as I can remember. Kenny, her son, and I started first grade together. She was always around. Always the same sweet spirit and smile. When she and JD married she really enjoyed her life on the farm. They have been great neighbors to my parents and us on River Valley Road along the banks of the Illinois river. I was at her home the day she passed and Im glad she fell asleep and awakened in the arms of her Savior! She was a loyal Christian and will be missed here. My love to the entire family.

“ When I was a little girl, my family would go to Uncle Kit's and Aunt Lillian's where Joyce and Loyce would entertain us using hand puppets. They got under the bed and stuck their Socks covered hands out and did a show. I grew up with these cousins. I'm sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers
