“ Although we did not really know Judy I can tell you that she must have done a great job raising her family when I see what a good person her son Norman is. I have known Norman for 10+ years and I know he always had a special place in his heart for his mother. Peace be with you all and smile when you think about Judy.

“ Judy, I can not believe you are gone. We were so close growing up. Oh the fun we had. Times, I will always cherish. You will forever hold such a special place in my heart. I was truly blessed to have you as my cousin. I am thankful there is no more suffering for you. I will always remember our Friday Night Chats. Loved hearing the great stories about your Grandkids. It was always so painful for me to hear all the things you were having to go through. I can't wait to meet you again, where there will be no more pain and suffering. That Alexander reunion will be wonderful. I love you, my Dear Sweet Cousin and may you finally RIP. Prayers going up for your family. Love to the family.
