“ I was SO touched, encouraged, & inspired at Judy's funeral. "Moses lived near God, & had the freest & most unhindered & boldest access to God, but this, instead of abating the necessity of prayer, made it more necessary, obvious & powerful. Familiarity & closeness to God gives relish, frequency, point & potency to prayer. Those who know God the best are the richest & most powerful in prayer." ~Bounds

Judy was indeed rich & powerful. May God hold her friends & family grippingly close as they process her homecoming.

“ We remember that Judy's smiles were the signature of her presence. Her positive and loving remarks, and eager trust for God made the San Diego sun brighter and happier.

I can still see Judy as she either descended or ascended the stairs at San Diego First Assembly of God (City View). Judy knew how to demonstrate a healing presence.

Then, there was the incident that sent all of us to our knees to pray - He touched Judy with a life changing event, giving her more time, more life, and more health. ...

Life is very short and getting shorter. There is one thing for sure, we live not for just our times on this earth, but becoming more like Him, we grow toward our promised for ever - and with those who've gone before.

“ I was fortunate enough to serve along side Roger and Judy on the social committee at FBC of Siloam Springs. Generational gaps didn't keep Judy from being a blessing in my life and my kids. She always had a smile and a willing spirit to serve those around her. Our committee had lots of laughs and fun. I thoroughly enjoyed serving with such Godly people and Judy will be missed by all who knew her! Roger, the Shoemakers will be praying for you and your family.
