“ I was a classmate of Ann's all through school at Siloam Springs. I remember her bright red hair in pigtails and her sweet smile. I am sure there was never a cross word that came out of her mouth. I last visited with Ann at our last reunion. My thoughts and prayers are with the Tate family as they mourn her loss. Diana Provost Haxel

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Tate family with these comforting words: Jesus spoke of a time when “all those in the memorial tombs” would “come out” to renewed life in a paradise earth.—John 5:28, 29; Luke 23:43. True, that glowing hope does not take all the tragedy out of death. Jesus himself broke down and cried over the death of his friend Lazarus—and that was just minutes before he resurrected him! At least, then, death is not always final. Jesus and his Father, both hate death. The Bible calls death “the last enemy” and says that it will “be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) In the coming Paradise, when Satan’s rule is a thing of the past, death will be gone forever. Its innocent victims will be reclaimed by the resurrection. This is the hope for, Ms. Tate, as well. Then, we will at last be able to say, ‘Death, where is your sting?’—Hosea 13:14. I am very sorry for your loss. May God’s Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmeryls way@gmail.com

“ I was a classmate of Ann all thru the years at Siloam. I will remember her as being one of the smartest in our class and always friendly. Her brilliant, thick red hair in neat braids come to mind from our grade school years. She had a ready laugh and good word for everyone. One of the details I remember is that she had beautiful cursive handwriting which I always admired. My condolences to the family as you mourn her loss. Velma (Cripps) Hartog
