“ I remember when I was in pre-k you locked me in a classroom and when to lunch. I know you didn't mean to but everytime I think of you in that moment. I miss you so damn much already Julie I love you and my son loves you so much I can't believe your gone already 😭 . I Thank God everyday that you got to meet me son James and got to held him at Dee's funeral I love you and I miss you and just know that

“ I worked with Julie in the late 70's at Camp Siloam (Baptist Assembly then.) She was full of life, always made us laugh with her outrageous sense of humor and nearly always had a smile.
