“ Lou Ann and family,

We are so sorry to hear of your loss. You have certainly had a rough year. Your mother (and dad) were very special to me. I spent alot of time at your house when we were both in high school and they were always very nice and kind to me. I will remember them both very fondly. Our prayers are with you at this time. There is nothing like a daughter losing your mother. I heard some one say one time that "you don't ever get over it, you just learn to live with it". I know this to be true. May God bless you and your family and help ease the sorrow that you are feeling. We love you all. Patti & Randy

“ LuAnn, Larry, John, Mary and Family:

I am so sorry for your loss. There are really no words. My Grandmother once gave me a plaque with the saying:

"God gives us memories so we can have roses in winter."

I am praying for your family that in the days to follow you are blessed with those "winter roses", those sweet memories of Ms. June, and all she meant to you and those who knew her.

“ Losing your mother is one of the hardest things a woman has to go through. My experience has taught me that the good memories never fade, and the bad memories tend to be forgotten. May God rest his hand on your shoulder and give you peace. Please know that you and your family have our deepest sympathy.

“ Lou Ann,

You probably won't know who I am, but I have seen you and spoken briefly with you at the feed store. I just wanted to tell you that just this morning God brought you and your mother to my mind and I prayed for you both not knowing she has passed away on Memorial Day. I lost my mother just 11 days ago to cancer and I know how my heart aches and I wanted to visit with you sometime if possible. I came by your mother's today but no one home. I know there are no words to take away the hurt or ease the pain, but Jesus will give you strength each day as He has for me. It is written in Revelation 21:4, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying neither shall there be any more pain for the former things have passed away." There is hope of seeing your mother again. Something that has helped me is I have read Revelation 21 every day. I have tried to focus on the new earth and new heaven. My heart goes out to you and I am praying for you.

“ I will always remember your sweet mom sitting by me all these years in choir practice and church. We have had so much fun - giggling like school girls over and over! I know she is having a ball in heaven singing in the heavenly choir and being with loved ones who went before her. We will miss her so much. Our hearts and love and prayers are going out to each of you - she loved you all so very much! God bless you and keep you - we WILL see her again someday.
