“ I taught with Ms. Digby during my beginning years as an educator. I remember her as a welcoming veteran middle school teacher with smiles and laughter for everyone.

“ I met Karen online many years ago due to a mutual interest in genealogy. She was my second cousin twice removed, which is a pretty remote relationship I suppose. For quite a while we shared information and theories, playing detective in a small way. She was always generous with her time and was a lot of fun. It's kind of strange how someone you never meet in person can still become a good friend. I will miss her. Gary Beeler, San Ramon, California.

“ Used to teach school with Karen in Gentry. She was a spitfire & kids loved her. One of my favorite memories was her desk— it was a MESS. However, she always knew where everything was located. We used to tease her about it a lot. She was a special person and I loved her very much.

“ Oh my, so many memories. She was a wonderful story teller. I remember her reading us the Best Christmas Pageant Ever. I was excited for the movie a few years later. And it was truly disappointing after Mrs Digby's rendition.

She was also a friend. She was always taking Shawna and me to somewhere. 4H, dance, and band. Her car was usually a mess but we had so much fun! Rest in peace.
