“ I will always remember her laugh..it was a one of a kind. She had so much faith in me, even when i didn't believe in myself. She always told me just what I needed to hear..even if it wasn't what I wanted to hear. She was so proud of me when I got off parole...I thought she might have been happier than me! I remember one year I picked up all the turtles I found out on the roads and brought them back to the office and set them free in her office haha she didn't care until they pooped all over her office...we were both cracking up because we didn't realize they pooped like that! I have so many memories of my dear friend, I could write pages and pages! I will keep each one with me the rest of my life! Rest peacefully now my sweet friend..see you again soon!
