“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Baxter family with these comforting words: There, in front of eyewitnesses, Jesus performed an unforgettable resurrection. It was a token of the resurrection that he had already predicted some time prior to this event, a restoration to life on earth under “a new heaven.” On that occasion, Jesus had said: “Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—Revelation 21:1, 3, 4; John 5:28, 29; 2 Peter 3:13. This is the hope for, Ms. Baxter, as well. I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl

“ I'm so glad that I was able to meet Grandma Baxter just a few years ago. I enjoyed seeing her at the annual Baxter family reunions in the summer and other times at the Rhoades house in North Little Rock. It was so wonderful to see how much she loved her family. She will be missed very much.

“ Grandma Baxter was the first person to ever make me a watercress sandwich. A bit of a back story. I have always loved to read and I think I had just finished up one of the Boxcar Children books where they talk about living near a stream and making watercress sandwiches. I was up at Grandma's during this time and went on and on about watercress sandwiches all afternoon, finally she says "Let's go!" and we drive down to the creek where we always used to swim and she harvest's watercress from the creek bed. We go back home and make up two sandwiches and I'll always love her for that along with too many other things to list. We miss you Grandma.
