“ Kathryn was loved by her friends. She loved to go to yard sales and hang out with Sister Mini Fortenberry and Carolina Smith, you rarely saw one without the other two. She has lived a long life for the Lord and now she has gone to be with Him. We will remember her and are blessed to know her son, Wendell. He is a wonderful man, a good father and a hard worker. Surely she raised him to love the Lord and he is but one of her masterpieces by which she will be remembered. A Jewel in her crown as she enters into her blessed peace.
