“ Arkie and Lucille were truly missed when they moved from Alaska back to Arkansas. I also enjoyed spending much time at the American Legion sharing stories of our lives. Our sympathies also to Lucille and family. God bless you all.

“ Red was a good man. He was the first neighbor to greet me when I moved to Gentry. He would ride his lawnmower over to say hi and chat. I will miss having him around and hearing his stories. My sympathies to Lucille and the Norris family.
