“ Amy, Holly, Lisa and Sydney and family,

I am so very sorry for your loss. Jonell was such a good and dear friend to me for so many years and I think of her often even though the paths of our lives have taken us so far apart. I have regretted that the distance prevented those long visits over coffee, or going junkin' or sitting by the fire or in the yard under the shade where we used to watch you girls. I loved your mama and know she loved you all dearly and that you all will miss having her with you. Please know that each of you and all your family are in our prayers and we know God will provide the comfort and strength that you need.

*With deepest sympathy,

“ Jonell (as I always called her) was a very dear friend of 40 years, introduced to me by my sister-in-law, Kyra Patterson Franz, when my husband and I moved to Siloam Springs in 1976. Instantly, she became my friend too. Jonell and I were pregnant at the same time. She with Sidney and I with Kimberly, born a month apart. Jonell's, Kyra's and my children grew up together playing at each other's homes. We were in a Bible Study together for several years. We loved going to antique stores and flea markets together. Our visits always revolved around sharing a pot of coffee. Over all these years, by a phone call or a visit, we always just "picked up where we left off". Many wonderful memories of a very dear, special friend! I will miss you, Jonell! But I am also very comforted to know that you are with the Lord whom you loved so much. (I heard a family member say that "you would be tending God's flower gardens" - what a beautiful picture!)

Please know that my prayers are going up for each and every one of you for the comfort and peace that only God can give! Through our grief, we must remember that she is happy and healed.
