“ I met Kyle and had him in my life for only a short while, but was glad to have had any time at all. He had to be the only person in Tahlequah, Oklahoma that loved Razorback football as much I did. We would analyze games, complain about calls, and debate on Coach Nutt. Occasionally he would make jabs at my fondness for the Texas Rangers. His emails and comments always brought a smile to my face. He was overflowing with the happiness of life. Your family is in my thoughts.

“ Larry & Janet,

I have waited on you both numerous times at the bank and when I first heard of what you all were facing I have continually prayed for you. My husband and I lost our daughter to a drunk driver in 1995. She was only 6yrs. and 5 months old when she passed away. So, I can tell you from experience the pain you feel is tremendous. There are no words to take that pain away. I do know that if you hold tight to you faith that you will survive. It is the ultimate test of your faith that is forsure. Just know that many prayers are being lifted for you not only now but, in the weeks, months and years to come. If not by family and friends but, by Jesus himself he is interceding for you.

“ Janet and Larry,

We can not pretend to even imagine what heart ache you must be feeling right now. We have tried to keep updated many times daily over the past days and prayed that God would help with all the tough decision making that was placed before you.

We remember Kyle as a little boy when we visited for Josh and Mandie's graduations. A very happy young man that we could tell was loved more than life itself by many. As you move forward with only memories, please know that others care and are praying for your burdens to be lighter and additional strength. We all need to look thru the eyes of a four year old sometimes. Our little Carter told his daddy not to be sad last night. He said "Now Kyle gets to be one of God's angels!" All of us know that he definitely has to be one of God's favorites!
