

Kyle "Opey" M. Clark

December 12, 1983 - September 9, 2025

Kyle "Opey" M. Clark, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, passed away on September 9, 2025, after a sudden death. Kyle was born on December 12, 1983, in Rockford, Illinois, to Sherri (Small) Clark and Richard S. Clark. Kyle loved his family, hiking, arrowhead hunting, caving, kayaking, and anything to do with the outdoors. He also loved collecting antiques and going on the gamblers with his friends. He never met a stranger. He was engaged to SueAnna George. Opey had two kids he loved with all his heart: Gypsy River Clark (Shiane Barnes), five years old, and Rayvin Tanner George-Clark (SueAnna George), twenty-two months old.

He was preceded in death by his dad, Terry Dean, and his biological dad, Richard Clark, and his grandmothers and grandfathers.

He is survived by his mother, Sherri Clark, of Tahlequah; two brothers, TJ (Kimberly) Dean, of Tahlequah, Ok., and Donald (Samantha) Dean, of Paw Paw Michigan; his fiancé SueAnne George; his daughter, Gypsy River Clark, and son Rayvin Tanner George-Clark; and five nieces; one nephew; and lots of friends that considered him family. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Kyle was such a beautiful soul. He was there holding me when my grandson passed and checked on us everyday afterwards. He often stopped by to talk with his uncle William and tell us about the babies and his next jobs and adventures. He was always smiling and bragging about his beautiful babies. I miss him so much already!!

“ Fly high with the angels Kyle! Thank you, for all the laughter you have given so many of us over the years. You could light up any room with your energy, love, and craziness lol ❤️ your memories will live on through all of us and there are alot of us ❤️ i know you are watching over your kiddos, you were just the best dad....but we will do our best from down here for you as well. May God hold you and keep you in His loving care. We are so heartbroken, but we find some comfort in knowing you are at peace. God only calls his best warriors home to soon....wrap your wings around your family, may they feel your love and protection surround them. Keep on adventuring up there man!

🙏❤️RIP RIH❤️🙏
