“ Rest in peace Lance, you were not only a Nephew/Brother/Friendyou will be so greatly missed, that contagious sense of humor you had, and laugh...and you never met a stranger, you could brighten anyone's day with your quick wit, I guess my favorite memory of you not to mention all the camping trips, the trips on beaver Lake on the Sea-Doo's... That you would ride backwards, all the visits we had with you, at our house, or yours and Angela's house, and the stories you would tell about your trip to Mexico with JD, not to mention a few other things that you and him would pull pretty much ..all of your livesI guess my favorite memory would be when you would wake me up way early in (on more than one occasion) the morning ,ringing on my doorbell, nonstop, I would get up go to the front door, looking out the glass part and seeing no one, go back and get in bed get comfy and a few minutes later the door bells going off again, go back to the door,look out the glass part of it and still see no one, turn around go back and get in bed and then hear the ringing goes again, well I'll put this real nicely I flew to the front door swung the door open... And what do I find, you sitting on my doorstep leaned up against the bricks with just enough room for you to reach the doorbell, you are soaking wet, and you look up at me with those puppy dog eyes, looking ever so drenched and say, auntie Staci can I come in ?????? And the next words out of your mouth would be, I've got to tell you something you're not gonna believe this(i'm not going to repeat the circumstances but) yes those were some of the fondest memories I have with you,so I guess I will repeat again the Lord took another angel home, for us it seems way too soon, but I know now at least you'll get to finally meet your mother...and other loved ones, I'm sure you're in very good companyI know you will always be in our hearts forever and always, and I know you're's probably up there singing with that beautiful voice you had and you love to sing ...You are probably right now on the biggest ,prettiest ,most awesome golf course you have ever seenuntil we meet again ...we miss and love you so muchAuntie Staci

“ I will always remember Lance from when I worked at USA Drug's. I remember us giving each other a hard time. He always had a smile on his face. When I worked at the Gas kiosk he would come sometimes and talk. I pray God bless and give you all peace as you start this next chapter in life. Pam and Issac I am here anytime you need me. To the rest of the family may God bless you all and give you peace and comfort. You were loved by many and will be lost by many as well!
