“ Mom Savage. What can I say. Every time I saw her was a wonderful memory. She accepted me like I was one of her own. She told me one time that I have a seat at her table any time. I didn't have to be invited. 'Just come on in and eat. ' She always had a kind words to say to me. I would tell her how precious she was to me. I didn't ever call her nora. She was mom to me, n I think She likes that I called her mom. I will truly miss her. There will never be another mom savage. She loved unconditionally. To be treated as one of the family, meant so very much to me, and I love her for that. Rest in peace, mom. I love you and will see you later.

“ I will always remember her as I saw her last summer at her birthday cookout. Surrounded by her family and so very happy. She was my niece and a very, very special one. I am so glad we had that time together. I will always remember her that way, laughing and happy. Rest in peace, my pretty one.

“ *Please Except Our Deepest Condolences.
Nora is a Beautiful Soul, and Her Grace Filled
Spirit lives on in so many beautiful people.*

James 4:14

Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

This life is only a vapor for us, a temporary place such as this was never intended to be our permanent home. We move on to more glorious wonder, beyond any understanding this world could imaging. Nora walked by faith and not by sight, she set her eyes on the prize of intended promise from Our Lord.

Heaven has gained a Precious Angel, and she is living her eternal life with Him today and always.

You are all in our prayers, and our thoughts, at the difficult time of loss.

May God send comfort and peace to your hearts and souls.

Sincerely,

Rex & Joetta Mackey

“ Mrs. Nora taught me when I was a young girl I Sunday school and always knew exactly how to answer my many questions as I got older and started to work in the church more and began classes for ministry school again she encouraged me to do more be better and gave me advice and hope when I began to doubt myself she would always pray for me and I could feel it she was full of God and she always hugged me and told me how much she loved me and I loved her very much she was an amazing mentor and friend although I miss her I am joyful that she is with our Lord

My dearest sweetest friend, We were It! No one could ever had been such friends, God and God alone brought us together that day so long ago in 1981. You are now in an amazing paradise awaiting the great wedding supper of the Lamb. I can barely wait to see you again.
