

Larence Gale Potter

November 27, 2025

Larence Gale Potter, 90, of Colcord, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on November 27, 2025.

Born with a curious mind and a joyful spirit, Larence lived a full and meaningful life marked by music, laughter, and an extraordinary gift for fixing anything broken. Whether he was sharing a well-timed joke or bringing new life to something in need of repair, he made the world around him brighter.

Larence spent 25 years with Daisy Manufacturing as a data processing manager and 10 years with Benton County Courthouse working in data processing. He approached every task with dedication, humility, and a genuine willingness to help others. He was a member of the Colcord Church of Christ.

Larence is survived by his sisters, Marilyn Sanford and Carrol Carver; his son, Wesley Potter and wife Bambi; his daughter, Tamra Gayle Mott and husband Michael; five grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Larence was preceded in death by his wife, Laquita Joy Potter; parents, Tom and Mary Potter, as well as two brothers and three sisters.

His legacy lives on through his family, his humor, his music, and the countless stories he shared over his long, full life. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

A graveside service will be held for Larence on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, at Bell Cemetery, Watts, Oklahoma. To sign the online guestbook, please visit: www.wassonfuneralhome.com
