“ Sharon, I am so sorry for your loss. May God in Heaven bring comfort to you as only He can. I am so glad that you two came to our family reunion last September and that I got to meet you. I had heard so many good things about you two that I felt like I already knew you. Take care of yourself and may God bring Peace, Hope and Joy to you your heart. Eula Mae Lindsey “ Christ has shown us, through your family, how to handle a very difficult time like this. As Barbara McCartney wrote, "yes, he is gone, but lost? oh no, for we know where he is". Thank you and your family for the years of showing us Christ. We share in your pain. Praying for all of you.

“ Bruce and Sharon brought so much joy and "fun" in our lives in the short time we knew them. I was extremely blessed to have the privilege to share my home in Houston with them for a short while. Bruce fixed my lawn mower, he and Sharon trimmed my trees and bushes. Sharon fixed my flower arrangements and made them beautiful and kept the house immaculate. I always tried to make it to Houston when they were there, they made us laugh. Sharon, Lori and Larry you are so very lucky to have had Bruce for a father and husband. My heart aches for you. Be strong and may God hold you close now and forever. We love you

“ We will miss Bruce's easy going personality and sweet spirit. We will miss seeing him in the church choir and hearing him play the organ!
I enjoyed serving on a committee with him for a few years. It is so comforting to know where he is and that we will see him again some day.
We will be praying for his family.

“ Our hearts were saddened with the news of Bruce's death. Bruce remains in our minds as one of the finest Christian men we have known. His Christ-like spirit was evident the first time we met Bruce and he lived his life for Christ in such a consistent way. One of the greatest tributes to Bruce's life is seen in his wonderful family. Our lives were enriched through knowing Bruce. We rejoice in his arrival in heaven with his Lord and Savior! God's blessings to all of the Myers family.

“ Sharon and family,
I was so sorry to hear of Bruce's passing, but I rejoice with you knowing that he is in heaven and that he isn't suffering anymore. This will be a very difficult time, (believe me, I know)but you will get through it somehow. God and only God will give you the comfort that you need. Please know that I truly care and will be lifting you and your entire family up during this difficult time.
Fondly,

“ I wanted to express my sympathy to the Myers family. Bruce will be missed by many. He was an honorable man.

I always enjoyed going over to the Jack Myers farm years ago when Richard and Bruce and I were much younger. There was always something interesting going on there if you liked tractors and machinery.

May God bless the family at this time of loss.

“ Sharon, Lori & Jeremy, Frank & Lori, & kids: Our hearts are broken for you and at the same time are joyful that Bruce is enjoying the face-to-face fellowship with the Lord Jesus - He was such a precious man and it was our honor to have known him. Because of God's grace in Christ, we will enjoy fellowship with Bruce again in Heaven, but until that time we walk beside you during these hard days, praying for God's comfort & peace for your hearts.

We love you,

Jan and Mel
