“ Dear Jackie and family:

I was so sorry to hear of Alice's passing. But she is now with the Lord she served and with those who have gone on before her. I have so many wonderful memories of coming into your home like a herd of buffalo and she always welcomed us with a warm smile (although, I'm sure she would like to shoo us out!) I loved Alice...she never made you feel badly or made you feel as though you weren't wanted....she opened her arms to everyone she knew and gave until she had nothing left to give. The world is a sadder place because she is gone, but hopefully knowing her and experiencing her quiet spirit will cause us to try a little harder to be nicer to those around us. Blessings Jackie! I had hoped to be able to come to her memorial service, but unfortunately cannot. You and your family are in my heart and prayers.
