“ I remember Laura always saying "Well Mel, Let's see what the Bible says about it" as she quickly went to the exact chapter and verse we needed all while we were supposed to be working. I remember bringing stuff to work to make salads for lunch. I remember having to get her eye makeup perfect before we could work even though it was perfect when she got there. I remember listening to Journey while we were supposed to be working. I remember her huge heart, her endless giving, her work ethic, and most of all her unconditional love for her family.
