“ Lauralee will always have a special place in our hearts. In the past, at funerals that we attended, she could always be counted on to say such fun, loving, interesting things about others. What a warm, generous, and friendly woman. Everyone that had the privilege of knowing Lauralee are surely blessed. We will see her again some day, and she will have that beautiful smile and nice stories to share. You'll be missed greatly, and we are happy that you are in Martin's arms again. Love, Dawn Ingebretson

ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Robeson family with these comforting words: The pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) The Bible helps us to understand how God feel about death. You see, God promises, "your dead will live" again. (Isaiah 26:19) I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmerylsway@gmail.com

“ I am sorry for the loss of your mother, grandmother, etc. and my friend. May the Lord sustain you through this difficult time. Having lost my own mother only a few months ago I certainly can understand your feelings of loss. Looking forward to that great day that we can be reunited with our loved ones including Martin and Charles who also rest at Fairmont.
