

Laveta M. Still

July 18, 1925 - June 24, 2021

Laveta Marie Still, age 95, passed away on June 24, 2021 in her residence at The Auberge in Sugar Land, Texas due to complications from Alzheimer's Disease.

She was born in Gentry, Arkansas and was the only child to Eva and Clyde Glass. She was preceded in death by her husband, William Stanley Still and her parents, who were all waiting to greet her at heaven's gate.

She is survived by her son, Randy Still and his wife Debbie of Sugar Land, Texas; her two grandsons Cody Still and his wife Shelley of Missouri City, Texas and Brandon Still of Sugar Land; as well as her great-granddaughter Rylee Jane Still (Sept. 2020).

Laveta grew up in Gentry before getting married just after WWII. She and her husband lived in Tulsa and Lindsay, Oklahoma before moving to Texas. There they lived in Refugio, Snyder, Longview and The Woodlands where her husband passed in 2003. In 2018, she moved to Katy, Texas and lived in an assisted living community before recently moving to The Auberge Of Sugar Land, a memory care facility. Laveta loved to travel with her husband as they would visit family, and many scenic and historic locations throughout the United States. They particularly enjoyed taking bus tours across the country. A favorite destination was Branson, Missouri where they purchased a timeshare condominium.

Per Laveta's wishes, she will be buried next to her husband in their childhood community of Gentry,

Arkansas. A celebration of Laveta's life will be held for family and close friends once the concerns due to COVID-19 have ended and it is safe to travel and fellowship together again.
