“ My mother, Eva Barnett, was the secretary, bookkeeper and office manager for Jim Dodson, who owned Dodson's 5 and 10 (nickel and dime) store in downtown Siloam Springs, from 1946 until the store acquired new owners in 1960. Among Mother's responsibilities was the hiring (and managing) of all employees. LaWanna was hired at Dodson's in 1958, right after her 16th birthday. She worked as a 'floor clerk' for a short time, as Mother and Jim Dodson quickly realized LaWanna's potential in bookkeeping. She began working upstairs in the office with Mother, first assisting in accounts receivable. LaWanna worked at Dodson's the remainder of .her high school years. I was always aware of, and blessed by, the special friendship my mother and LaWanna shared. I truly enjoyed reminiscing with LaWanna about 'the good ol' days' at Dodson's. Our last time to share our Dodson memories was the night before Lonnie's celebration of life service in August, 2017. I will forever cherish my memories of visiting with LaWanna. May God bless and comfort her family and friends.

“ LaWanna was just the most wonderful friend and co-worker to me. I could always count on her work to be well done, and she and I shared a lot of laughs and good times after she retired and I would ‘call her in’ to work with me on special projects at the office. LaWanna taught me to make beautiful bows - I’ll remember her with every Christmas bow I fashion. 💕🙏
