“ Leonard was a wonderful man with a kind and loving heart. He could make the most amazing peanut brittle EVER!! Each year while I was at Peterson Farms, he would spend a day over the weekend near Christmas and make a lot of it to hand out in coffee cans at work the following Monday. What a joy and honor it was to know him. 😊

“ Unfortunately, I didn't get to know Uncle Leonard very well. Yet, I think the friends and family you leave behind are a reflection of your soul. In that mirror I see a joy for life. They laugh as easy as they cry, but beyond all, they love.

I wish I could have known Uncle Leonard better, but I am thankful I am a part of his family. Maybe I can reflect a little of that joy for life, a little of that soul.

“ My class and I just recently received the opportunity to meet Leonard while on a field trip visiting the Assisted Living Community. He was kind enough to open his apartment door and let us visit with him. In just 20 minutes time ,he inspired not only myself ,but all of my students from the neighboring high schools. His life story and kindness will never be forgotten.Love to all his family and friends.

“ Kay, Glen and Truitt family, I was saddened to hear of Leonard's passing. I always looked forward to running into Leonard at Mama Z's on Saturday morning or at the ball park. You always felt better after a visit with Leonard. That was a special & rare gift that he was able to give people. As you know, some people always got Arch & Leonard mixed up. I told dad one day that is a pretty good deal for you because Leonard is probably a better looking guy. My parents along with the other folks of Decatur loved Leonard & Irene. He will be deeply missed by everyone. I live out of state now and regret that I can not attend his service but my thoughts and prayers will be about your family. Alan Roller

“ Leonard was a wonderful man. I worked with him for many years at Peterson Farms. I don't think I've known a more dedicated employee than him. Working until just recently is just amazing. He had so many stories of Decatur & the early days. I always enjoyed hearing them. Our community has lost one of the best!

“ I Will always remember Leonard with fondness, He was very wonderful to work with. (Peterson for many years ) He made the absolute best peanut brittle there ever was. I know that he had several successful careers ! He was amazing. Talked to me about the love of his life and his 61 years of marraige . He told me stories of playing baseball in the early years on Sunday afternoons around all the communities with my Dad. He was a blessing and an inspiration to me. I know that his family will greatly miss him. Prayers for you all.
