

Leota Baer England Peel

August 19, 1916 - June 27, 2005

Leota M. Baer England Peel, 88 year-old former resident of Wesley, Arkansas, died June 27, 2005 at Quail Ridge Living Center in West Siloam Springs, Oklahoma. She was born August 19, 1916 in Shamrock, Oklahoma to Ed Baer and Nell Baer. Leota was a homemaker and a member of the Weddington Missionary Baptist Church. She was preceded by two husbands G.B. England in 1987 and Melvin Peel in 1998; one son, Joe England; one infant daughter; one grandson George Brewer; one great-grandson Jeremy D. Brewer; three brothers Roy, Meryl, and Harold Baer; two sisters Ruby England and Bulah Fuer. Survivors include three sons Rex and Earlene England of Huntsville, Arkansas, Jack and Patricia England of Siloam Springs, Arkansas and Herman and Sharon England of Newark, Ohio; one daughter Jenna Boydston of Springfield, Missouri; 19 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; one daughter-in-law Barbara England of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; one brother Kenneth and Francis Baer of Lincoln, Arkansas; one sister Mary Nell Harris of Wanatchee, Washington. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, June 29, 2005 at the Weddington Missionary Baptist Church with burial to follow in the Weddington Cemetery. Mr. Phil Misenheimer will officiate. Visitation will be Tuesday, June 28, 2005 at the Wasson Funeral Home in Siloam Springs, Arkansas from 5 - 7 p.m.

Tribute Wall

DP

“ Jones was a kind and loving person. I learned a great deal from her and have always appreciated the kindness and patience she showed me when I was a young woman with a lot to learn about life. She was a wonderful Grandmother to Kelli and a beautiful and positive influence in her life. My deepest condolences are extended to her beloved family, I know you will all miss her very much.

Diane Perkins - September 19, 2012 at 11:33 AM