Such a wonderful tribute. I was unable to attend service . I appreciated Leroy so much in my home church growing up and remember how he provided flowers for the church for our wedding. A good man.

“ My fondest memories of Grandpa come in the form of feelings, mostly. A firm hug. A warm hello. The sincerity of grateful tears during prayer. The strength displayed carrying the heavy boxes he always brought. The security indicated through playful banter with Grandma. The passionate conviction of his faith.

I am so grateful to have the hope of heaven for this amazing man. But I am equally grateful of the legacy he has left behind in his family where we will still enjoy affection, warmth, gratitude, strength, security and passionate conviction of our faith.
