

Letty Mae McGowan

August 17, 1959 - April 12, 2020

Letty Mae McGowan was called home to Jesus on Easter Sunday, April 12, 2020, peacefully at her home in Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Born in Minnesota on August 17, 1959, Letty eventually found her way to California where she raised her one daughter, Kelly, and spent several years working at a local church and enjoying life in the Los Angeles sun. She was a passionate lover of the Lord, cared well for those in her community, and especially loved being a mom to Kelly and sister to Sam. Letty was also a resourceful creator - from Kelly's Halloween costumes to wedding dress, from diaper bags to play teepees - she could figure out how to create almost anything out of very little.

Within the last year she had the joy of becoming a grandmother (Babushka, as she preferred to be called) to her sweet grandson, Beau, and made it a priority to spend several months in Oregon, where she successfully taught him elephant sounds and the importance of eating his fruits and veggies. Kelly will always remember Letty as the best mom and an ally - dedicated, full of conviction, independent. Together with her husband Greg, their son Beau, Aunt Sam and Nephew Nick, they will forever honor and celebrate Letty's life and look forward to the day they'll reunite in a better place.

Letty was always a free spirit / didn't like to make a fuss. No services are planned at this time. In lieu of flowers, you may make donations to Reignite Hope at <http://www.reignitehope.com/give/>.

I haven't seen Letty in years, but grew up with her, and a class mate. We sat together on the bus to and from school. Was it many of her birthday parties. My heart is sad. Prayers to the family.

Love, hugs and prayers to you and your family Kelly. My heart is sad for all of you as you experience the pain of her loss....and my heart is filled with hope and peace for you as you know there is a day in the future that you will see her again. Nice to see the photo of her with some of her Ralignite Hope people. I could hear her passion and commitment in her voice when speaking about the nonprofit she was working for. And so nice to see the photo of her with Beau. I can imagine how much she loved him!
