Tribute Wall

“ Libby Marie we all miss you! It had been at Moms funeral when i last saw my sweet niece. I gave you my combat boots from the military when you were a teenager and i know you kept them for several years before giving them to your friend. You had a giving heart that we all knew. Many didn't understand why we were close but you were my very first niece! My love was unconditional and you knew that. You would always find me wherever i lived in this country. You even found me when i lived in Oklahoma City and stopped a few times and we would laugh reliving some old times! Now your journey in this life is over and you know I will miss you every day. Ingot the call about your passing and right after that I got the call that your great uncle Charley had finished his journey as well! Look after each other and know you two will been in my heart until my journey ends. I love you my sweet Libby Marie.
Be at Peace Now.
