

Lila Gibson

March 11, 1916 - August 29, 2007

Lila Geneva Gibson, 91 year-old resident of Decatur, Arkansas, died August 29, 2007, at St. Mary's Hospital, Rogers, Arkansas. Born March 11, 1916 in Gore, Oklahoma, she was the daughter of William Campbell and Emma Lyons Campbell. She was a homemaker. She lived most of her life in Tulsa before moving to Marysville, California. She was a member of the Eastern Star and the Carbondale Assembly of God Church. She was preceded in death by her husband Del Gibson. Survivors include two sons, Ray Hyde of Keaau, Hawaii and Jerry Hyde of Marysville, California; two daughters, Lila Jean Smith of Yuba City, California and Norma Jean Migliori of Decatur, Arkansas; 16 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; and seven great great grandchild.

Funeral services will be 1:00 P.M., Saturday, September 1, 2007, at Falling Springs Church, near Decatur, Arkansas, with Rev. Phil Hudson officiating. Burial will follow at Falling Springs Cemetery. To sign the online guest book, visit www.wassonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

GH

“ Grandma,

We will forever love you, and always miss you. You were always the perfect grandma. You will be missed so much.

We Love you,

Glenda & Roxette

Glenda Hyde & Roxette Hubbart - September 19, 2012 at 11:35 AM

RS

“ "Mom" was such a dear, wonderful, caring person. We will miss her and take comfort knowing she is with the LORD now, and one day we will see her again.

Roberta and Bill Schoepf - September 19, 2012 at 11:35 AM

WF

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of sadness. God bless you all.

Wanda L. Ford - September 19, 2012 at 11:35 AM