“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sunshower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead.”-Isa. 26:19.

“ I new Lillard many years ago in Buena Park when he was an oiler with Local 12. I was in the concrete business and hired Darrell at times for backhoe work. I lost track of them and had no idea Lillard lived in or around Decatur.

I'm very sorry for your loss and pray for you and the family.
