“ Linda and I were best friends. Our dads were brothers so yes we were cousins but so much more-we did everything together. Saturdays we would walk down with a quarter in our pocket, pay 10 cents to see a movie with 15 cents left over for treats- we were rich! We both looked up to her older sister, Virginia ...one of the popular kids at our school. We danced to the music of Elvis and Ricky Nelson, spent time at the Woolworth's soda fountain, wore our first formals to Rainbow dances and even heard Jerry Lee Lewis play at a dance in Springdale. Linda was a good Christian, honest, a good mother and had a wonderful loving heart. Our world was better with her in it and she will be sorely missed❤️

“ My heart goes out to Kyle, Virginia, DeDe, and all those for whom aunt Linda was so dear to their hearts. She was always a kind, sweet, loving aunt. I am honored to have known her. I loved her, always. I still do.
Much love,
