“ It's been a long 5 years of losing my mother. I have seen God work in my life so amazing because of my mothers passing. Some of you don't know this but When October 4, 2008 my mom's last birthday, I accepted my calling into the ministry. She was so happy that she knew it was something I was called to do. This coming may I graduate from Ecclesia College caring on my calling. My mom said either go to the military or go to college. I did what she wanted me to do. I thank you all for your prayers and we still need them because my dad doesn't really know Christ. My sister is walking a life of trouble and she needs Christ to redirect her.

“ I initially met Linda at J&L Trucking. I frequently came out to help with computer issues and in the process we became friends. Later we continued to chat via email. I remember how strong willed she was and her dedication to doing whatever she choose to focus on.

I shall miss her very much. My heart goes out to her family at their loss.

“ I graduated a few years ahead of Linda in High School, but we were good friends. We lost touch for several years and then happened to run into each other again in town not too long ago. She hadn't changed - still the big smile and the bubbly personality. She will be truly missed.
May God Bless the entire family during this difficult time.
