

Linn Alan Carlson

July 24, 1956 - May 5, 2024

Linn Alan Carlson, 67, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, passed away peacefully at home on May 5, 2024 while watching the Dodgers play baseball. He was born July 24, 1956, in Lynwood, California, to Charles Richard and Wanda Jane (Reneau) Carlson. He is preceded in death by both parents.

He is survived by his wife, Gayla; daughters, Stefanie Borkert and Sara Anderson, both of Siloam Springs; son, Shane Carlson; grandchildren: Flora, Scout, Timber, James, Sally, Rosemary, Mercy, Jack, and Tobias; brothers, Fred Lenk and Marty Lenk; and sisters, Nancy Berry and Sandy Robertson.

Linn's life was full of joy because of his hope in Jesus. This joy and hope overflowed to others in every chapter he lived, manifesting in humor, love, and good deeds. Through his work as a writer and editor at DaySpring Cards he was able to plant seeds of God's love in countless hearts around the world.

Linn was a beloved friend and role model whose absence will be deeply felt.

Those who hope in Jesus can now anticipate Linn's joyful embrace welcoming them to their heavenly home.

A memorial service will be held Friday, May 10, 2024, at 11:00 a.m., at The Assembly, 2909 Cheri Whitlock Dr., Siloam Springs, AR. Visitation will begin at 10:30 a.m., at the same location. To sign the online guestbook, please visit: www.wassonfuneralhome.com

Linn was an amazing man and will never be forgotten. Our son died in 2011 and we had a dream of starting a nonprofit. Linn and Gayla were so encouraging and helpful and of course Linn knew just how to word things we needed said for the web site at that time. He has touched and blessed many lives. So thankful we have the eternal hope of seeing him again one day!
