

Lois Davis

November 7, 1924 - December 5, 2004

Virginia Davis was born on November 7, 1924, in Little Rock, Arkansas. She passed from this life on December 5, 2004, in her niece's home in Pharr, Texas. She was a resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas. She was an active member of the Church of Christ. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Maude Flanagin; her husband, Ralph E. Davis; her brother Argil Flanagin, her sister, Frankie Willis and an infant daughter. She is survived by a sister, Emma Mae Kimmel, of Pharr, Texas; four nieces, Pamela Creason of Vernon, Texas; Paula Berkley of Pharr, Texas; Patty Sell of American Fork, Utah, and Penny Stewart of Scottsdale, Arizona. She is survived by her cousins Ron and Virginia Davis of Siloam Springs, many friends and neighbors and her beloved members of the Eastgate Church of Christ. Virginia served her country with honor in the United States Navy during World War II. She earned her Bachelor's Degree and was engaged as an accountant/office manager in the natural gas industry in New Mexico prior to her retirement and move to Arkansas; Virginia helped in the care and raising of her nieces. She spent her latter years serving widows and people in need of care. Her energy combined with her compassion and abiding sense of responsibility to family, to friends, to church members and neighbors. All of this was based on her commitment to her Lord. Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m., Thursday, December 9, 2004, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Mr. Charles Cash officiating. Burial will be in Brashear's Cemetery, St. Paul, Arkansas. Visitation for friends and family will be 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.,

Wednesday, December 8, 2004, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Arrangements are under the direction of Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

“ I didn't know Virginia very long. I met her through my sister and we all ate lunch a couple of times. She was a wonderful person and I really admired her upbeat attitude.
