“ I remember as a small child having Lorrayne and her mother Opal as my Sunday School teachers at the First Baptist Church. They were the nicest ladies and always smiling and happy. I still have a book they gave me one year signed from them. My parents, Herb and Willa Nell Kinsey, knew the family well and my dad worked for Lloyd for many years. We left Decatur when I was 17 but I still have fond memories of Lorrayne. My sympathies to all the family.

“ The last time I saw Lorryne, she smiled that bright smile of hers, hugged me, then we reminisced about our days together in Girl Scouts. She was our troop leader from Brownies through Cadets, and gave all us little girls in Decatur special memories. She made sure we had an opportunity to participate in and see things that most girls never get a change to enjoy. I'll miss her very much.
Debbie, I feel your loss so deeply!
