

Loyd Florer

January 27, 1919 - January 10, 2012

Loyd Lincoln Florer, 92, of Springdale, Arkansas, died January 10, 2012, at Circle of Life Hospice, Springdale. Born January 27, 1919, in Terlton, Oklahoma, he was the son of Albert L. Florer and Beulah Mae Hewitt Florer. He lived most of his life in Maysville, Arkansas, where he was a farmer. Loyd served in the U.S. Navy during World War II, and was in the Pacific aboard the USS Nashville, and USS Bushnell. He was on the USS Nashville, which was an escort for the Doolittle Raid on Tokyo. He was a member of the VFW and a deacon at Immanuel Baptist Church, where he was also a Sunday School Teacher and sang specials. He married Faye January on February 24, 1942, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister.

Survivors include his wife Faye of the home; three sons, Arthur Florer and wife Ruth Ann of Springdale, Arkansas, Dennis Florer and wife Elizabeth Ann of Bentonville, Arkansas, and Wayne Florer and wife Kathryn Ann of Maysville, Arkansas; eight grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren; one brother, John Florer and wife Margie of Boulder, Colorado; two sisters, Crystal Rae Haley of Siloam Springs, and her husband George of Gravette, Arkansas, and Alberta Walls of Santa Maria, California.

Pallbearers will be Paul Bowles, David Holcombe, Kent Vise, Bob Easter, Larry Eaton and Gary Lucas.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Saturday, January 14, 2012, at Immanuel Baptist Church, Maysville, Arkansas, with Rev. Jim Alexander officiating.

Burial will follow at Maysville Cemetery, Maysville, Arkansas. Visitation will be 5:00 to 7:00 p.m., Friday, January 13, 2012, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

DS

“Loyd Florer was a great Christian role model to his extended family. We have memories visiting him and Faye. He was always a gentle man speaking in a gentle voice.

The last time I saw him he gave me a small picture of himself in his uniform and said it as something to remember him by. I thought it a sweet gesture. I will treasure the picture as well as the moment.

He certainly was a member of the greatest generation who gave of themselves to God, country, and family.

He is now a part of the cloud of witnesses and we are comforted we will see him again one day. John 14:1-2

His brother John misses him and sends his condolences to Faye, Arthur, Dennis, Wayne, and families.

Deana Florer Sonnesyn - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

CD

“I will always cherish the sweet memories of when my dad pastored your church. The love and support your family gave our family is more than any words we could ever express. Hope we can stay in touch with you Faye and will be praying for you and the rest of the family as well. Our God is the master of comfort and peace.

Charlotte Darling - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

PY

“I pray the Lord will give you peace and comfort during this time of loss.

Phil Yates - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

MF

“ I am thankful that I had an opportunity to visit Loyd and Faye just a few years ago. I remember visiting their farm when I was much younger and those experiences are with me today! I had great fun and was well loved on those visits.

I am honored to know that my Uncle Loyd served our country honorably, and lived his life an example for Christ. I know he will be missed. Yet, I know he is now with our Lord Jesus Christ in Heaven, praising and serving the Lord.

Mark Walls & Family - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

LM

“ Thinking of you all at this time.
God Bless!

Linda Tucker Melton - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM

EW

“ Bro. Loyd Florer was a deacon at Immanuel Baptist Church while my father, Paul White was pastor. Bro. Florer and his wife were always a blessing to me. I am thankful for his life and the many ways that he allowed God to use him.

Evelyn White - September 19, 2012 at 11:59 AM