

Lucile Temple

August 13, 1917 - October 1, 2006

Lucile Temple, 89, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died October 1, 2006, at Fayetteville City Hospital, Fayetteville, Arkansas. Born August 13, 1917, in Bamberg County, South Carolina, she was the daughter of William Henry Collins and Hilma Bolton Collins. She was a restaurant owner and taught Sunday School for 41 years. She was of the Baptist faith and was a member of the Eastern Star. She was preceded in death by her husband Eugene Temple in 1991. Survivors include one daughter, Donna Carter of Westville, New York; two sisters, Bessie Morris of Forsyth, Georgia and Cleo Cope of Thomasville, Georgia; and one grandson, Lloyd O. Carter of Westville, New York. Graveside services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 3, 2006, at Allen Cemetery, Moseley, Oklahoma, with Dr. Steve Abbott officiating.

Tribute Wall

AW

“ I haven't seen Aunt Lucille for many years, but I have sent correspondence and talked with her by phone several times.

I have fond memories of my mom and dad and I visiting Aunt Lucille and her family when I was growing up.

I am thankful Aunt Lucille is with the Lord and no longer bound by her physical disabilities.

Aleese Still Windham - September 19, 2012 at 12:02 PM

MC

“ Lucile was my baby sister. Due to distance and poor health, we did not see each other much. I expect to have a happy reunion in heaven.

Miles & Shelby Cope - September 19, 2012 at 12:02 PM

LC

“ She was a neat aunt. We haven't had a lot of contact over the years but I knew when I took her older sister (my mother, Cleo) to see her in Forsythe, Ga. about three years ago that it probably be the last time they would see one another in this life. Due to illness I am sorry we could not be there for the funeral.

LOYD & ANN COPE - September 19, 2012 at 12:02 PM

LP

“ Aunt Lucile was my mother's younger sister. She came to visit us in South Carolina when I was growing up. I remember that she loved to laugh and enjoyed a good joke. I did not see her much over the years but did try to keep in touch by phone or correspondence, especially after she was older and in poor health.

Louise Cope Pugh - September 19, 2012 at 12:02 PM