“ James and rebecca, I just found out about your son. Please know that my heart grieves with yours as only a parents heart can. God gives us peace though, even while we are not understanding his ways. Please don't be afraid to call me if there's anything I can do to help you.

“ I am very sadden to hear of Luke's passing. I had the pleasure of meeting Luke many times at Fish City Grill. He was always very professional and a very polite young man. He always appeared to be "all business" which made him such an assest for FCG.. My heart aches for the Coody family.

“ This has hit me real hard. Luke and my son, Sam Rusch were co-workers at Fish City Grill the last few years. I never let Luke know how much Sam appreciated his friendship. Sam has many funny stories of Luke's quirky ways. He did say that Luke had quite a following of customers at Fish City and that he really took care of them well when they came in to dine. Sam is pretty shaken up about this and will miss his friend tremendously. Luke is now with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May God comfort the Coody family and give them peace during this most difficult time.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Luke's family. We met Luke at Fish City and instantly thought of him as friend and part of our family. We will miss our conversations with him and seeing him at Fish City. Our hearts are saddened by his loss. May God provide you strength and courage in this days ahead as you move forward in your life without Luke. Draw comfort in God's promises that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Our hearts are thrilled that Luke had that relationship with God through Jesus His Son and that we will see him again some day.

“ Our prayers of comfort go to your family, as we have known Luke for many years in the restaurant business. First met at Red Lobster and from that point on a kindred relationship in Christ was sparked. Luke was a beautiful young man with a heart of gold. Our heart is heavy with sadness as we will miss him. We will miss him in this present time, but will await seeing him again in eternity with Christ.
