“ I will always remember Malinda and her generous dinner parties. She would invite large groups or small groups for softball or games and great food and hospitality at their home. Malinda was a kind and generous lady.

Malinda and I went to school together at Skiatook and then later in life our paths crossed again at the World Wide Church of God. I was saddened to see her obituary this morning and learn that she had cancer. I haven't seen her or Carroll for a long time but my prayers go out to her and her family. Her brother Maloy was a friend of my brother Pete in school.

*God bless each of you and may God comfort you in such a sad time.

Malinda and I went to school together in Skiatook and then our paths crossed again in 1993 when my husband and I moved to Arkansas and we were attending the World Wide Church of God. I was very saddened to see that she had passed away; I haven't seen Malinda for several years now and did not know she was ill. Her brother Maloy and my brother Pete were friends in school. My prayers are with you all.

“ Malinda was such a wonderful, incredible person, always more concerned about others than she was about herself. It was amazing to me that she dedicated so much of her time to organize a gathering of her high school classmates when she was evidently seriously ill from her cancer. She just wanted all of us to have a last chance to reconnect and recall happy times from our childhoods. RIP, Mallinda. I hope your garden in Heaven is everything you hoped it would be. And thanks for the wonderful legacy of friendship you left for all of us.

“ Well I am certainly going to miss my friend Malinda but would not wish her back with the pain and suffering she endured. She is in such a beautiful painfree place now. She was such an absolute sweetheart to all who encountered her. I am blessed to have been able to know her. She was a kind, gentle and generous spirit. I am sad that she is no longer here on earth but look so foward to seeing her again in glory land! Love you Malinda!
