“ We wanted to extend condolences to Darl and Maudine Patterson from our family. We know this is a physically and emotionally trying time and we will be praying for strength and endurance for your family. We also pray for a peace in your heart and daily actions; that you may all find a calmness and reassurance during this time of loss. Know that even though we don't get to see you often, at a time like this, you are never far from our thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely, Trenton and Dyann Tisdale and Family
