“ I became acquainted with Marilyn in the mid 80's while she was working at Sears. She sold me appliances for my home. Over the years we became friends and we would routinely communicate by phone or visits. Years later Marilyn sold me a washer and dryer while at NWA Mall. I specifically asked for her. While working at Walgreens as an assistant manager I was instrumental in getting her hired. She had exceptional customer service skills and was truly a "gem" of an employee. Thank you Marilyn for blessing me with your friendship, RIP my dear friend! My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
