“ She was a bright spot in my morning at the fitness center when she would come to walk. She always had a smile and never failed to speak and ask how I was. She was a sweet lady and will be very much missed.

“ Franni & I are so sad to hear about the loss of this wonderful, kind lady, and we weep right along with you on her sudden passing away. We do also rejoice with you that Marge is now in the presence of the Lord, where we all want to be. I know Marge will be greatly missed by her godly and wonderful husband Jim, and her children like Tony and his wife Misha.
May the memories of this wonderful woman and how she touched so many be a comfort to all, knowing that it will be only a short time till we are all united again with her in heaven with our Lord.
Our prayers and thoughts are with you all in this difficult time. Marge will be sorely missed.

“ Miss Marge was and continues to be a brilliant light among many. I will never forget her kindness, gentleness, and Christ-like meekness; considering the interests of others above herself. What an honor to have known her, this side of heaven, and to have been blessed by her beautiful heart for Jesus and His people. I will wear the crystal cross pendant she gave me in her honor and will continue to cherish the fond memories and snapshots of her radiant face, in my mind. Until we meet again, Miss Marge...we love you.

“ Dear Marge,

How can we put into words how much you have touched our lives? I keep seeing you sweet smiling face and hearing your kind words of love for us.

You were the BEST "adopted" Grandma ever. THANK YOU for all that you did for Jessica. She looked forward to your garage sale outings so much. She'd come home beaming with her new found treasures.

I keep remembering how you told me that you considered me one of your best friends. That touched me to the core Marge. I look forward to eternity to build on the friendship that we started here on earth. I love you so very much.

You were famous for your cooking. I especially remember you divinity and Todd loved your coconut cream pie!He still talks about the one you made for his birthday.

Special people like you are so rare. I thank the LORD for allowing our lives to be touched by you. We miss you so much already and look forward to the day we will never have to say good-bye.

We love you very much!

“ Dear Jim and family,
Our hearts were saddened to hear of Marge's passing. Even though we know she is with the Lord, the loss of her on earth still hurts. Please know our love and prayers are with your family during this time. Trusting the Lord, who is the Resurrection and the Life, to comfort and sustain you over the weeks and months to come.

“ Jim, Tony and Family,

What a loss for us but a gain for heaven! Mrs. Nichols was such a precious lady who always had a sweet smile and kind words when I saw her around town. Perhaps one of her greatest attributes was her willingness to unselfishly share you, Jim, with those who needed your help with hope and healing . . . those like me.

May the Lord give you strength and comfort during this difficult time.

“ Marge was such a dear, dear lady, a constant Christian witness to family, friends and strangers. It seems impossible that her work here on earth is done. But no one knows the hour that the LORD will say "Well done, my child, come home now." This Christmas will be difficult without her but keep remembering that Christmas celebrates the birth of Him who said "I am the Resurrection." We will be praying that HE will wrap you in HIS love and comfort you.

“ Dear Jim, Tony, Patty and family:

Heidi and I had been following the updates via email from Ron Burtraw and praying for Marge's recovery. We are deeply saddened for your loss. Marge has been such a delight to know over the years! I can't remember a time where I saw her and didn't get a hug. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with your family in this time.

Sincerely,
